

KIDDUSH SPONSORSHIP

Sabbath Kiddush, the communal gathering that follows the Sabbath morning prayers, is a traditional opportunity to mark joyous events and life cycle occasions within the community.

A birthday, anniversary, or Yahrzeit are all events commonly honored at the Kiddush, as well as baby namings, graduations, and other opportunities to give thanks in the company of family and friends.

At the conclusion of sabbath morning prayers, just after noon, the congregation gathers to say the blessing over the wine („KIDDUSH“). The week’s sponsor has an opportunity to speak about the event for which they are sponsoring the Kiddush, and is welcome to say a few words about the torah portion of that week, an upcoming Jewish holiday, or another Jewish topic.
